

Definitions of Family and Household Members:
A family may consist of a single person; and/or person; and/or additional persons, who occupy the assisted unit

Family	A single person or a group of two or more persons with or without children who maintain an interdependent relationship and whose income and resources are available to meet the family's needs.
Head of Household	The head of household is the grant recipient. The head of household is responsible for ensuring that the family fulfills all of its responsibilities under the program.
Spouse	Spouse means the partner of the head of household in a marriage or domestic partnership recognized within or outside of this jurisdiction. The term "spouse" does not apply to boyfriends, girlfriends, or significant others.
Elderly Family	A family whose head, spouse, or sole member is at least 62 years of age. It may include two or more persons, each of whom is at least 62, living together; or one or more persons who are at least 62 living with one or more live-in aides.
Disabled Family	A family whose head, spouse or sole member is a person with disabilities; two or more persons with disabilities; or one or more persons with disabilities with one or more live-in aides.
Displaced Family	A family in which each member or the sole member is a person displaced by governmental action, or whose dwelling has been extensively damaged or destroyed as a result of a disaster, declared or otherwise formally recognized by federal disaster relief laws.
